Tom Sawyer and the picket fence

This is Tom Sawyer. He is a very mischievous boy

One day his Aunt Polly told him to pain the picket fence white.

Tom saw the fence was very big and he was sad. He hated to work.

He got an idea. He would trick other boys to do the work.

He started to paint and two boys came to watch. "This is really fun. If you pay me a nickel I will let you paint." said Tom. The boys were gullible, paid Tom a nickel and started painting.

Soon Tom had more boys painting and more nickels.

Later, he showed Aunt Polly the painted fence and she was very happy. Tom is a very mischievous boy.
